TRAVELING TO TALLINN BY AIR

Tallinn Airport is located just 4 km from the city centre, making the airport easily accessible. The airport has good public transport connections.

Tram to and from the airport

Tram line no. 4 stop is located on the city side of the passenger terminal of the airport. On Mondays to Saturdays, the first tram arrives at the airport at 5:25 AM. On Sundays at 5:45. The last tram from the airport leaves at 00:45 AM, allowing the passengers arriving on the late evening flights to reach the city centre by public transport.

The journey to the city centre takes approximately 15 to 17 minutes. Information about tram lines and stops can be found HERE.

A 1-hour ticket can be bought with a bankcard (1 hour 1,50 €) from the vehicle. Please enter from the front door. As you board a public transport vehicle, you will be required to validate your trip every time by swiping the card to the validator. If you see a green light, your trip has been validated.

By taxi

Getting to the airport by taxi is very convenient, as taxis stop at the car park in front of the passenger terminal.

Use the Google map below to see how far the airport is from your location and make sure you have enough time to get to the airport on time.

CONSIDERING A LONG WEEKEND IN ESTONIA?

Official travel guide to Estonia <https://www.visitestonia.com/en> offers an overview of different possibilities of what to do and see during your visit. In addition, we take this opportunity to share some more specific suggestions with you:

Estonia is a country where natural wonders are never more than minutes away. Travellers can catch a few precious hours of reflection or lose all sense of time on a journey that lasts a lifetime.

Voyages around our 2,222 islands are measured by the ebb and flow of tides. The virgin forests that cover over half our country seem to have their own time zone. Our morning alarm call is a symphony of birdsong. Our bears and wolves hark back to primal days. Taking a deep breath in some of the cleanest air in the world will wipe away years of cares. And our summer sunsets go on forever.

This year is set to be the year of Estonia's original social network — the sauna. When the stones heat up, Estonians open up. It is a place for sharing and connection, cleansing, and relaxing. It is the one social interaction in Estonia that is always better in real life than online. Visit Estonia in 2023 and celebrate the Year of the Sauna! More information about the Tallinn Old Town Days take place from 2nd to 4th of June 2023. Tallinn Old Town Days is the biggest festival in Old Town dedicated to local cultural heritage and community. Various music, theatre, art, and sports events are held during several days for both locals and visitors. Both old and young guests can peek into the courtyards of Old Town, learn about the long and impressive history of Tallinn, and participate in various activities.
